The image is a high-contrast, black and white photograph of a textured surface, likely the cover or endpaper of an old book. A prominent vertical crease or fold is visible on the left side, creating a sharp line that divides the frame. The surface is covered in a dense, irregular pattern of black and white areas, suggesting a rough, aged, or possibly stained material. The lighting is harsh, coming from the right, which casts deep shadows and highlights the texture. The overall composition is abstract and focuses on the play of light and shadow on the material's surface.
